Nine new groups are beginning this month which will meet in a variety of locations, on several different days of the week. All groups will be studying the book of James so just pick the one that works best with your schedule! Grab a flyer from a Welcome Center for a listing of the groups, then contact Chris Santasiere or Sherri Fadool in the church office to get plugged in.

Benediction

*Those who are able, please stand.

"What if a lifeguard let someone drown because they jumped into the deep end before they knew how to swim? What if a firefighter ignored a fire because it was sparked by someone who fell asleep near their fireplace? Thankfully, rescue professionals don't stop to make value judgments on our personal character before rescuing us. They are trained and ready to rescue people in need regardless of how they got themselves into that position. Philip Yancey writes about how God offers us spiritual rescue in this Our Daily Bread devotional. He compares our spiritual plight to that of a stranded hiker: 'The central message of the Bible is one of rescue. Paul points out that none of us "deserve" God's mercy and none of us can save ourselves. Like a stranded hiker, all we can do is call for help. Quoting the psalmist, he says, "There is none righteous, no, not one; there is none who understands; there is none who seeks after God" (Rom. 3:10-11; Ps. 14:1-3). The good news of the gospel is that in spite of our state, God seeks after us and responds to every plea for help. You might say that God is in the rescue business.'" bible.com
