"Storms threaten to sink our faith. These are not every day inconveniences like a flat tire or a hassle at work. These are the difficulties that cause us to question God's goodness. Prolonged illness, the death of a loved one, a loss of purpose, a marriage destroyed - and it seems like God is asleep. We pray for healing and relief, for opportunity, for reconciliation, for anything that will make the storm pass. ... however, the storm is not the point. The storm is real and terrifying but the point is not about surviving the storm, it is about who is in the boat with us. Jesus didn't come to calm storms, He came to save souls. ... to defeat death. Casting our cares on Him is ... a submission to whatever circumstances God may bring into your life, simply because they are from God. It's not that Jesus doesn't care about your problem, it's just that your problem isn't going to sink the boat. Jesus does not take people out into the middle of the sea to drown them. He takes people across the sea so they can participate in His work of world redemption. The storm is not where you face the enemy. The storm is where you meet your God. Relief from the storm is not the best thing that can happen to you. The best thing that can happen is for you to be conformed to the image of the Lord Jesus Christ. The enemy can use the storm to make you anxious, afraid, hurt, and discouraged. God can use it to make you fearless, secure, and steadfast. Jesus can calm the storm in your life. But even if He does not, you can trust that He will uphold you, you can believe that He will transform you, and you can know that He loves you." Colin Smith

Part 2

March 18, 2018

In the New Testament, _____ were to
_____ the message and the messenger.

Miracles are _____ manifested upon the external world and personal life.

Jesus authenticated His supernatural powers by _____
_____ and _____. Mark 4:35-41

By calming the storm raging in the lives of the disciples, Jesus demonstrated...

- He knows storms _____.
- _____ in your storm.
- He allows you in the storm _____.

Jesus did miracles to demonstrate _____
_____ in all of life's seemingly impossible situations.

It's important during the storms that we remember, _____
_____.
