

Part 2

A Second Chance After Bad Choices

John 4:4-42

April 11, 2010

Don't overlook an important phrase in verse 4: _____

_____.

John's packaging of this phrase in the Greek tells us this _____ with the woman at the well was _____.

God still makes divine appointments for _____ today.

Divine appointments are...

- for setting you free from _____ of bad choices.
- _____ you from bad choices.
- to _____ from the weight of bad choices.

Be aware of divine appointments, be aware of Jesus meetings, it is in those meetings we get our

_____.

Another important phrase you don't want to miss is found in verse 28:

_____.

The woman at the well told the residents of Sychar, " _____
_____."

The same Jesus who told the woman at the well all she had done knows

_____.

Our bad choices are not an insurmountable problem if we accept Jesus as

_____.

When she believed Jesus was the Christ, verse 28 says "leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, ' _____'".

When you have been given another opportunity by the Living Water after bad choices, you leave your water jar and go tell others, "come see the Man who gave me a _____."